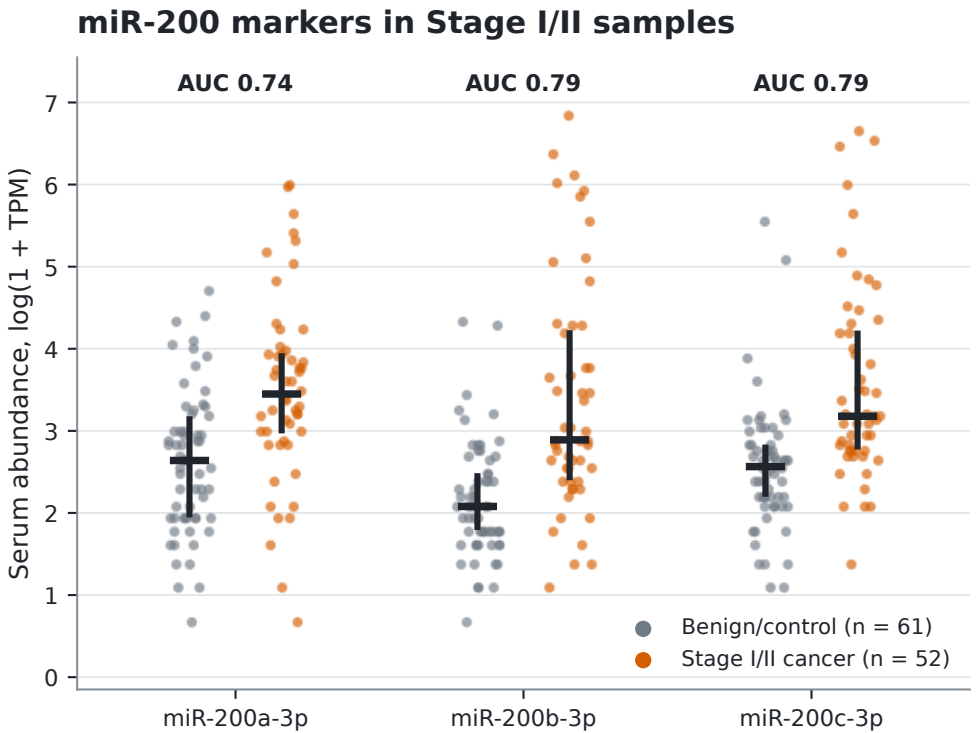
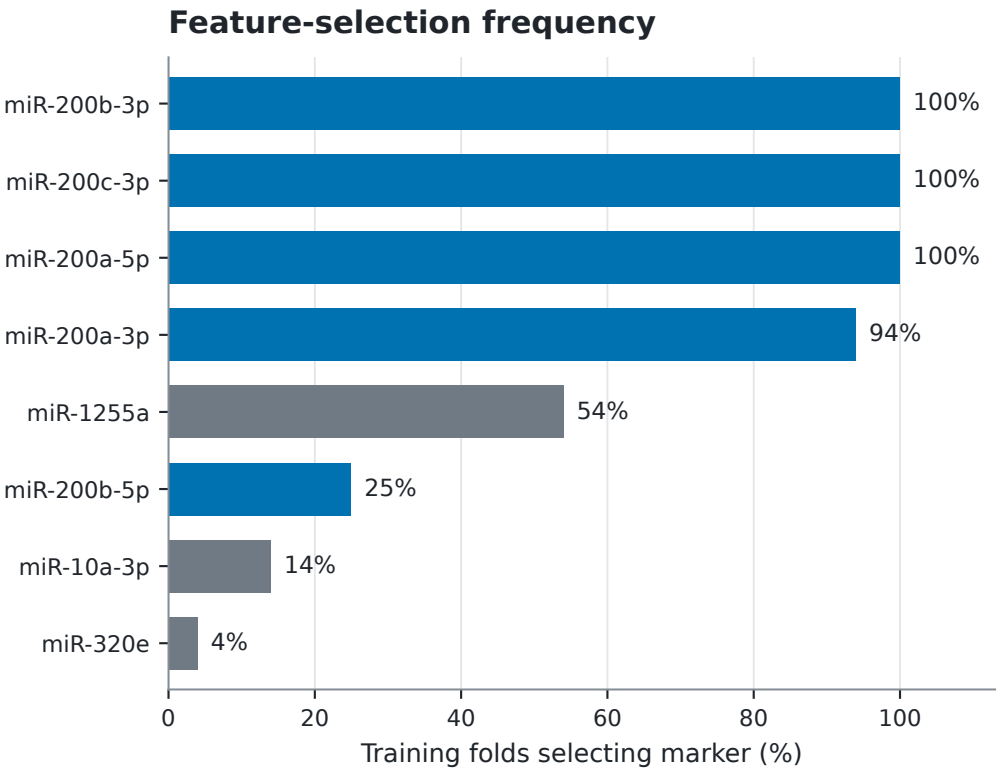
Circulating miR-200 signal and feature-selection stability





Left: dots are individual samples; median and interquartile range are overlaid. Right: selection frequency across 100 training folds (20 repeated 5-fold splits), not external validation.